Rejoice as we begin the cycle of the Torah's annual reading!

Do you want to be a king? Then be obedient!
From Deuteronomy 17:18-19

When he takes the throne of his kingdom, he is to write for himself on a scroll a copy of this law, taken from that of the Levitical priests. It is to be with him, and he is to read it all the days of his life so that he may

- 1.learn to revere the Lord his God
- 2.and follow carefully all the words of this law and these decrees.

God's Protective Covering

Excerpt from Saturday message
by Messianic Leader J. Isaac Gabizon

We see it in verse 43, which is the last one dealing with Sukkoth. It says that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Something in this verse attracted some rabbinical commentators. The Lord says here that the children of Israel dwelt in booths or sukkahs, but nowhere during the Exodus are we told that the Israelites actually lived in sukkahs. They lived in tents; the Hebrew word for tents is ohel, and not sukkah.

Last Wednesday's Message

Walk and Talk Outreach

A set was then given to a man who said he was not religious. They told him that it was not about religion but about having a relationship with God, also mentioning that because of sin, it was important for man to be reconciled with God through Yeshua. Then the man confessed that he was Buddhist

BIRTH

It was the first time in Israel that a man born blind was healed because the Messiah had come to the Land. This is the miracle of Sukkoth, a miracle when the blind see, a miracle still available to anyone who does not have Yeshua as his or personal Savior. What happened next is tragicomic: that means it was sad and funny.

We stand together with Israel. May the Lord continue to protect and provide through His unwavering promises.

If you would like to financially support Israel you may donate through our Canada Helps page. Please indicate that the money is for Israel. Thank you.

Evil will not end until the Messiah returns, so we pray as well for His soon coming to heal the hate and restore His kingdom.

Peace in Yerushalayim (Jerusalem) means peace for the world.
